

Orchestra

½ Credit

1 Semester

Text: Music handed out in class

Prerequisites: None

Course Description:

The learning of music theory, history, and skill to further enhance the student's knowledge of the fundamentals of string and orchestral performing/playing. b. To provide opportunities for the students to learn discipline in the arts and therefore in all life experiences.

Course Content:

Music theory, history, literature and technique exercises performed for concerts and festivals/conferences.

Course Format:

Announcements/Warm-up exercises/Rehearse current repertoire

Course Expectations:

Please refer to handbook

Grades:

Highly based on effort and participation along with playing exams, written final, and attendance at performances.

Course Objectives:

a. To provide students with the opportunity of artistic achievement and enrichment through the study and performance of high quality and stylistically diverse orchestral music.

b. To create an atmosphere of musical and personal growth through commitment to high standards, respect and cooperation for members of the ensemble, instructors, facilities, music materials, and the rehearsal process.

c. To enjoy the process of learning.