

Morton High School was awarded their 3rd consecutive Silver Medal from the US News & World Report. The Morton High School is ranked 57th within Illinois and #2122 in the nation. According to US News & World Report's website, the high school was awarded based on the students' performance on state assessments and how well the school prepared students for college.