

MHS FINE ARTS

Theory & Composing

Music Theory

This semester long course gives students an entry-level into Music Theory. The core units teach students the fundamentals of pitch, harmony, ear training, and structure and analysis.

Composers' Guild

This after-school club allows students to learn the fundamentals of music composition and to write a piece that will be performed live on the Bertha Frank stage by professional musicians.